

Douglas Harre

Douglas brings to Wellington 2020 an extensive background in education, and a particular interest in the use of IT. He joined Wellington 2020 as an Associate Trustee with the aim of employing his education-related expertise and experience to help with Community ICT education roles.

Douglas is currently employed as a senior IT consultant in the Ministry of education. He has produced and presented a number of papers and reports on IT in education.